Day 4: Tues 1 Oct 2019 San Francisco, California USA Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Arrives: 8.00am Departs: 11.00pm

San Francisco, California, has long been America's shining city by the sea: a beacon on the West Coast that boomed during the gold rush of 1849 and, for much of the 20th century, embodied the sunny California dream. It has always been a city of dreamers, a place that appeals both to the country's counterculture and also, ironically, to those looking to strike it rich. The Summer of Love unfolded here in 1967, while today it is the epicenter of the Internet economy, enjoying yet another period of expansion.

Day 6: Thurs 3 Oct 2019 San Diego, California USA Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Arrives: 9.00am Departs: 5.00pm

Easy-going San Diego embodies the Southern California surfer town fantasy, with its more than 300 days of sun, mild year-round temperatures and accessible, sporty pastimes and tourist attractions. You can hike the Torrey Pines State Natural Reserve to get a glimpse of whale migrations, go sailing in the bay and, of course, surf the famous swells of Del Mar, Oceanside and La Jolla (among many other superb spots). But the sixth-largest city in the United States is surprisingly nuanced, with distinctive neighbourhoods: Old Town, North Park, Point Loma and Coronado are all within a few miles of the port, while the bustling Gaslamp Quarter and Little Italy are within walking distance.

Day 9: Sun 6 Oct 2019 Puerto Vallarta, Mexico Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Arrives: 8.00am Departs: 5.00pm

Unique compared to Acapulco, Cancún, Zihuatanejo and several other coastal resort towns in Mexico, many of which were created by the government as planned communities—Puerto Vallarta, on the Pacific Ocean, retains quite a bit of its colonial-era charm. Its town square, Plaza de Armas, and the gorgeous parish church of Our Lady of Guadalupe, topped with an ornate crown and overlooking the port, serve as the loveliest representations of bygone ages.

Day 10: Mon 7 Oct 2019 At Sea Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Enjoy your day at sea, on board the "Nieuw Amsterdam"

Overnight: Nieuw Amsterdam

Day 11: Tues 8 Oct 2019 Huatulco, Mexico Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner Arrives: 10.00am Departs: 6.00pm

Huatulco, situated on Mexico's Pacific Coast in the state of Oaxaca, has nine bays and 36 beaches, offering more than enough opportunities for fun in the sun. The most popular beach is La Entrega, with clean white sand and calm waters, perfect for snorkeling and swimming . . . or just relaxing. But Huatulco's attractions aren't limited to sand and surf; there are also archaeological sites to explore, rivers to raft, and waterfalls whose pools invite childlike splashing. Bird lovers, in particular, will find Huatulco to be especially captivating. The region is home to more than 225 bird species, including many rare ones and a number that are endemic to Mexico, like the Colima pygmy owl and the wildly colourful orange-breasted bunting and citreoline troaon.

Overnight: Nieuw Amsterdam

Day 12: Wed 9 Oct 2019 Puerto Chiapas, Mexico

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Arrives: 8.00am Departs: 5.00pm

The southernmost port on Mexico's Pacific coast, Puerto Chiapas is named for the state in which it is located. It is relatively new, built in 1975, and is the primary hub from which the region's agricultural goods, including coffee, are sent abroad. For travellers arriving by cruise ship, the town of Puerto Chiapas is a jumping-off point to explore surrounding areas, including Tapachula, the second-largest city in the state of Chiapas. In addition to visiting the coffee estates and banana and cacao plantations of the area, day trips include excursions to Maya sites such as Izapa.

Overnight: Nieuw Amsterdam

Day 13: Thurs 10 Oct 2019 Puerto Quetzal, Guatemala

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Arrives: 8.00am Departs: 9.00pm

Puerto Quetzal is Guatemala's largest port on the Pacific Ocean side of this Central American country, important for both cargo and cruise ships. There's not a great deal to see and do in Puerto Quetzal itself, and visitors should adjust their expectations accordingly. Puerto Quetzal is an ideal point of departure for exploring several corners of the country. Choose your mode of transportation—plane, bus, car or boat—and decide whether you want to take in Guatemala's stunning, volcano-studded landscape, of the country's Maya sites, the UNESCO-recognized colonial city of Antigua (the former capital), a coffee plantation or one of the many bequiling bodies of water. In addition to the gleaming Pacific, there's Lake Atitlán, which 19th-century German explorer Alexander von Humboldt described as the most beautiful lake in the world.

Overnight: Nieuw Amsterdam

Day 14: Fri 11 Oct 2019 Corinto, Nicaragua

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Arrives: 8.00am Departs: 4.00pm

One of the region's most politically and socially stable nations, Nicaragua has been billed as the next great spot for eco-, cultural and culinary tourism. Adventurous quests keen to experience its charms are rewarded richly for their efforts. The country's most visited cities are Managua (the capital), Granada and León; the latter sits near the Pacific Coast. Corinto is the nearest port town, just northwest of León and along the route to the Panama Canal Zone. It offers many of the charms of the larger cities, including their colonial-era architecture, as well as a number of cultural and ecological attractions in surrounding areas.

Overnight: Nieuw Amsterdam

Day 15: Sat 12 Oct 2019 Puerto Caldera (Puntarenas), Costa Rica

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Arrives: 8.00am Departs: 6.00pm

One of the stops along the Panama Canal Zone route, Puerto Caldera on Costa Rica's Pacific Coast isn't your ordinary port of call, positioned as it is within easy day-trip distance of the country's multiple national parks. The town itself is small, but makes for an ideal base from which travellers can venture out to explore the variety of this Central American country's outdoor attractions and activities.

Day 17: Mon 14 Oct 2019 Enter Panama Canal Balboa

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Arrives: 5.00am

The town of Balboa stands at the Pacific end of one of the world's great engineering wonders, the Panama Canal, Long the administrative centre of the Canal Zone, it was U.S. territory until the last day of the last century, when it was returned to Panama on December 31, 1999. The 77-kilometer (48-mile) route that begins here and ends at the Caribbean unfolds like an epic tale. The construction of the Panama Canal is one of those epic tales from the past, an old-school feat of engineering, ambition and courage. A cruise along it today is a journey through the centuries, from the Spanish fortifications near Limón Bay to the glittering skyline of Panama City, not to mention the canal itself.

Departs: Cristobal 7.00pm

Think of the Panama Canal, and the image that may come to mind is of the world's huge tankers and cruise ships passing through a series of locks. That, however, reflects only one aspect of this part of the world. As ships travel from the Pacific to the Atlantic, they also pass colonial towns, historic fortresses and manmade lakes that are today home to sanctuaries for hundreds of different animal and plant species.

Day 19: Wed 16 Oct 2019 Oranjestad, Aruba

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Arrives: 8.00am Departs: 5.00pm

Located off the coast of Venezuela, the windswept Dutch island of Aruba is otherworldly. Here, the beaches are spectacularly pristine, the waters are romantically restless, the island interior is lunar-like and filled with cacti, and the trees are—quite famously—bent in the wind. The island's consistent trade winds are part of the destination's allure: They keep the humidity, rain and hurricanes common in much of the Caribbean during its off-season at bay.
