Did you know...

Originally known as Blackall Range, Maleny was founded in the year 1878 when the first selection of the red soil scrub was applied for by Isaac Burgess. Maleny town derives its name from a small village in Scotland.

Maleny (pronounced muh-LAY-knee) is a rural town and locality in the Sunshine Coast Region, Queensland, Australia. Maleny was a timber town until the early 1920s and then was a centre of dairy production and fruit growing.

Maple Street is home to numerous cafes, restaurants, breweries, ice-creameries, markets and food stalls. Start your day with a coffee from one of the high street cafes, grab a bite to eat from the food stalls in Maleny Lane and finish your day with a locally brewed ale.
